Great Wilbraham; St John, Little Wilbraham;
and St George, Six Mile Bottom
Diocese of Ely

Sunday 15th July, 2018

7th Sunday after Trinity (Proper 10)

We are a group of four churches in the Diocese of Ely seeking to worship God faithfully, and to serve Him in all that we do. If you are visiting or if this is your first time worshipping with us, we would love to meet you. Welcome!

Lord of all power and might,
the author and giver of all good things:
graft in our hearts the love of your name,
increase in us true religion,
nourish us with all goodness,
and of your great mercy, keep us in the same through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever.

We all know that Mark's Gospel is the Reader's Digest Condensed Version of the Jesus story. It's the shortest. Everything happens immediately. No extra details. Just the facts.

So, that should give us pause when Mark dedicates fifteen precious verses to the beheading of John the Baptist. Verses where Jesus is not mentioned, and that seem rather peripheral to the objectives of the Kingdom of God. What's going on? Here's my guess. Essential to Mark's version of the Gospel is that the presence of Jesus exposes the duplicity of the kingdoms and empires to which we are supposed to pledge allegiance. This is our world and our story, and perhaps we forget that only because we have become so numbingly accustomed to seeing it play out daily in the headlines.
